SALVE REGINA COLLEGE HAS
WOODROW WILSON FELLOW

THURSDAY
MARCH 10, 1966

Miss Gertrude J. Ste. Marie, daughter of Mrs. Leon Ste. Marie, 1289 South Main Street, Fall River, Mass., has been selected as a Woodrow Wilson Fellow for the year 1966-67, it was announced today by Sister Mary Emily, R.S.M., president of Salve Regina College, where Miss Ste. Marie is a senior.

She is one of 1,408 new potential teachers for the nation's colleges and universities selected by the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation from 380 different collegiate institutions in the United States and Canada.

Miss Ste. Marie is a major in Biology, the field in which she will do graduate work in preparation for college teaching. Fellows under this program get one academic year of graduate education (with tuition and fees paid by the Foundation) and a living stipend of $2,000.

The winners this year were selected from over 11,000 students nominated by college professors across the country.

Miss Ste. Marie has been on the Dean's List at Salve Regina each semester, is a member of Sigma Phi Sigma--national honorary society in colleges operated by the Sisters of Mercy, and was instrumental in organizing the College's Biology Club.
