SECOND MODEL GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE
UNITED NATIONS RESCHEDULED AT SALVE REGINA

The United Nations, in miniature, comes to Newport, Rhode Island, next Thursday, April 7, when the International Relations Club of Salve Regina College presents the second Model General Assembly of the U. N. on campus. Originally this meeting was scheduled for last January but had to be postponed when all high schools in the area closed because of snow storms.

Nearly 200 delegates, observers, and faculty advisers from nineteen high schools in Rhode Island, Connecticut, and Massachusetts will attend the day-long session, with registration starting at 9:15 a. m.

The three topics to be discussed are:

Admission of Red China to the U. N., The Rhodesian Problem, and Disarmament.

Rev. Edward S. Winsor of St. Columba's Chapel in Middletown, R. I., will officiate as President of the Assembly. Father Winsor holds a Bachelor of Sacred Theology degree from Berkley Divinity School, New Haven, Conn., and a Master's degree in International Affairs from Columbia University. He is presently student advisor for the Master's degrees program at the Navy War College.

The high school students have been preparing for the event for months. The Model General Assembly offers them an opportunity to learn both about the U. N. and about the problems of the nations of the world.
