PEACE CORPS REPRESENTATIVE FROM WASHINGTON AT SALVE REGINA COLLEGE

A Peace Corps Representative from Washington, D. C., Nancy Dean, will visit Salve Regina College on May 18th, 1966 from 10:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

While on campus, Miss Dean will discuss life in the Peace Corps with interested students and will show slides of Ethiopia, where she served for two years as a Peace Corps Volunteer Nurse.

In Ethiopia she lived in a small town and worked in a 50-bed hospital as a bed-side nurse doing part-time administration and teaching. She found her job and her life in Ethiopia creative, rewarding and educational. From her travels in Ethiopia and East Africa as well as through the Orient on her way home, she has seen Peace Corps Volunteers in many different countries working at widely diversified tasks. She is eager to talk with people about her experiences and the opportunities available to those interested in the Peace Corps.
