INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF CATHOLIC ALUMNAE
AWARD PRESENTED TO SALVE REGINA SENIOR AT BANQUET

Miss Carol Fairhurst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Fairhurst, 337 Main Road, Tiverton, R.I., was presented the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae award last night (5/24/66) at the annual Salve Regina College Senior--Alumnae dinner in Miley Hall on the College's campus.

The presentation of the plaque, donated by the Rhode Island Chapter of IFCA, was made by Miss Mary Ann McCaughey, president of the Salve Regina College Alumnae Association.

Miss McCaughey indicated that Miss Fairhurst was selected as a senior who represents the ideal of Catholic womanhood, one who has displayed leadership qualities in accepting college, church, and community responsibilities, and one who has already manifested interest in the College's Alumnae Association.

The speaker at the Senior--Alumnae dinner was Dr. Margaret F. Ackroyd, Chief, Division of Women and Children, Rhode Island Department of Labor.
