COLLEGE

FOR RELEASE

AT WILL

TWENTY-TWO SALVE REGINA FACULTY MEMBERS TO TEACH OR STUDY OFF-CAMPUS THIS SUMMER

Twenty-two members of the Salve Regina

College faculty will teach or study off-campus during the summer, it was announced (6/10/66) by Sister Mary Rosalia, R.S.M., dean.

Fifteen members of the staff will teach in the 1966 Salve Regina Summer Session, and seventeen visiting professors will be on campus for that session, which will offer fourteen courses in Science, Education, Languages, History, Music, Philosophy, American Constitutional Law, and Theology; a Reading Practicum; a five-course program in Special Education; a Drama Workshop with Ethel Barrymore Colt as actress in residence; and a Pre-College Study Skills program.

Sister Mary Augustine, R.S.M., head of the College's Division of Nursing, will be the official delegate of the R.I. State Nurses' Association (of which she is president) to the American Nurses' Association Biennial Convention in San Francisco, June 10-18. Following this, she will participate in an inter-university faculty workshop at Chatham, Mass., June 19-24. She will then go to Honduras, Central America, as a consultant to Sister Mary Ellenice, R.S.M., who is organizing a baccalaureate program in nursing at the National University at Tegucigalpa, the capital of Honduras.

Miss Lucille Sullivan of the Division of Nursing will accompany Sister Mary Augustine to San Francisco, Chatham, and Honduras.
