SALVE REGINA COLLEGE ANNOUNCES
1966-1967 FACULTY APPOINTMENTS

Sister Mary Emily, president of Salve Regina

College, Newport, today announced new faculty appointments for 1966-67.

Sister Marie Susanne, R. S. M., of Salve Regina

College's Education and Psychology departments, has been appointed director of Counseling and Psychological Services. To assist her and to act as Placement Director, Miss Flora M. MacDonald, formerly of the University of Rhode Island, will join the Salve Regina faculty next month. Miss MacDonald holds a Masters degree from Indiana University.

Rev. Anthony Rebeiro, a native of India who has been doing graduate work in Economics at Boston College for several years, has been appointed to teach Economics and Theology at Salve.

Added to the Education Department are: Dr.

Hilda A. Calabro, who taught previously at Boston College. She will also teach French at Salve Regina, holding an A. B. degree from Pembroke College, an A. M. degree from Brown University, and the Ph. D. from Boston College--the latter two degrees in French and Education. She will supervise student teachers training in secondary schools. Also Professor Frank E. Greene, who will likewise teach English at Salve Regina. Mr. Green was professor of English at Rhode Island College from 1946-66. And Miss Rae K. O'Neill, who holds a Bachelors and a Masters degree from Rhode Island College and is currently a Ph. D. candidate at Boston College. Miss O'Neill will also teach Social Studies.

One of the major Education Department programs at Salve Regina College is the recently developed training of teachers for the mentally retarded. Sister Mary Constantia, R. S. M., principal for the past seven years of St. Maurice Day School, Washington, D. C., a school working with the mentally retarded, has also joined the Salve faculty. However, Sister Constantia is no stranger to Newport in that she has been on the Salve Regina summer session faculty for the past three summers, working in this highly specialized field.

Miss Ann-Marie Keenan, a recent graduate of Emmanuel College in Boston, and currently completing her work on a Masters degree at Duke University, will join the Sociology Department. Also assisting in this department on a part-time basis will be Mr. Vernon J. Lisbon, executive director of the Family Service Society of Newport.

In the Nursing Division, new faculty members will include Mrs. Maureen Masterson Lareau, formerly Administrative Supervisor at Roger Williams General Hospital in Providence. She holds an R. N. from St. Joseph's Hospital, Providence, a B. S. from Boston College, and an M. S. from St. John's University. And Miss Carolyn L. Miller, R. N., Rochester General Hospital School of Nursing, Rochester, N. Y.; B. S., Loyola University, Chicago; and M. A. in Nurse Education, New York University. She has served in supervisory and teaching positions in hospitals in Rochester, Chicago, and Providence, coming to Salve Regina from Rhode Island Hospital where she has been an instructor in Maternity Nursing.
