SALVE FILM FESTIVAL
LISTS ATTRACTIONS

The International Film Festival of Salve Regina

College will present its next attraction, the film, PARABLE, Tuesday, November 15, at 7:15 in Mercy Hall. Produced by the Protestant Council of New York, PARABLE was shown at the Protestant pavilion of the New York World's Fair and became one of that fair's greatest attractions.

The twenty-three minute film, in which not a word is spoken, will be followed by an open discussion led by Nicholas Spagnola, C.S.S., and reshowed after the discussion. The public is invited. Donation: .50.

Newly appointed officers of the series are: Carolyn Ruocco, chairman, Johnine Cummings and Sue Dunphey.

Miss Ruocco announced recently that La Dolce Vita, originally scheduled for December, had to be withdrawn from the festival when recalled by its distributors for commercial showing. Scheduled in its place is another Fellini film, The Nights of Cabiria, to be viewed December 1. She also announced that Sundays and Cybele, rounding out the first semester program, will be shown January 12.
