SALVE REGINA COLLEGE PROFESSOR ATTENDING NATIONAL ENGLISH CONVENTION IN HOUSTON

Dr. E. William Burrell of Salve Regina College will attend the 56th Annual National Council of Teachers of English Convention in Houston, Texas, November 24-26. As a member of the organization's Board of Directors, he will meet with the Board on Wednesday evening, November 23. As president of the Rhode Island Council of Teachers of English, he will also attend a preconvention conference of editors of state council newsletters and other publications, November 22-23.

The opening general session of the convention will be held in the glamorous new Jesse Jones Center for Performing Arts which was recently dedicated. Other sessions will be held at the Rice Hotel. At one of these, Dr. Burrell will report on the work of the Committee on NCTE History of which he is the chairman.

Dr. Burrell is a member of the English and Education Departments at Salve Regina College and Coordinator of Student Teaching Programs there. He is also the vice-chairman of the six school districts Planning Study Project of Newport County.
