CRIMMINS WILL MODERATE
SALVE FILM DISCUSSION

William Crimmins, former director of the Newport Art Association Film Series, will moderate a discussion of Italian director Federico Fellini's Nights of Cabiria following its showing Thursday, December 1, at 7:15 p.m. in Mercy Hall as part of Salve Regina College's International Film Festival.
The film and discussion are open to the public.

Mr. Crimmins is on the faculty of the Portsmouth Priory School.

Produced in 1957, directly after La Strada, Cabiria is as extraordinary as that film in the number of awards it has won, in the quality of its genius and in the depth of appreciation it has inspired throughout the world.
It stars Fellini's wife, the talented Guilietta Masina, who has appeared in a number of his productions.
