FORMAL HIGHLIGHTS
SALVE RING WEEKEND

For the Junior class, this weekend at Salve Regina

College is Ring Weekend, the traditional round of activities celebrating the reception of their class rings.

Festivities begin Friday at 2:30 p. m. in the Great Hall of Ochre Court where, in the presence of faculty, administration, parents and friends, the juniors will hear remarks on the history, symbolism, and significance of the ring, and then receive them from the hands of Sister Mary Emily, R. S. M., president. A tea will follow.

That evening, juniors and dates repair to the Wind-jammer to dance from 8:30 p. m. to 12:30 a. m. to the lively music of Rhode Island College's "Unpredictables."

Saturday activities open with a Social at 2:00 p. m. at Queen Hall on campus and move towards the grand finale of Sapphire Ball from 8:30 to 12:00 in Ochre Court. Highlighting the decorations will be a giant replica of the class ring, a reminder of Friday's ceremony for it was through this replica that each junior walked immediately before receiving her ring. Orchestra will be provided by Roland Marcotte. Following the formal, a buffet supper will be served at the Pocasset Country Club.

On Sunday, Rev. George P. Behan, director of the Newport Catholic Information Center, will celebrate Mass for juniors and their dates at DeLaSalle gym at 11 a. m. Breakfast follows at the student union in Miley Hall.
