SALVE REGINA COLLEGE ANNOUNCES
APPOINTMENT OF NEW DEAN OF STUDIES

Sister Mary Alban Kerwick, R.S.M., will be the new Dean of Studies at Salve Regina College, effective September 1, it was announced today by Sister Mary Emily, R.S.M., the college's president.

Sister Mary Alban succeeds Sister Mary Rosalia Flaherty, R.S.M., who has occupied that post at Salve since 1957. Sister Mary Rosalia has recently been appointed Province Director of the newly established Study-Evaluation-Development program of the Sisters of Mercy of the Province of Providence, serving Rhode Island and Southern Massachusetts, also effective September 1.

With a B.A. degree from Providence College and an M.A. from Catholic University, in Latin and Greek, Sister Mary Alban also studied at the Regina Mundi Theological Institute, Rome, Italy, 1956-1957.

Her teaching experience includes service at St. Xavier's Academy, Providence, and at the novitiate campus of Salve Regina College. She was a member of the Provincial Council, and was Assistant Provincial, Province of Providence, 1960-1966. Sister was also Directress of Studies of the Province for six years.

Sister Mary Alban will move to Salve Regina College from St. Xavier's Convent, Providence, where she is currently serving as Superior.
