SALVE FACULTY STUDYING HERE
AND ABROAD FOR THE SUMMER

Sister Mary Emily, R.S.M., president of Salve Regina College, Newport, R.I., will leave July 10 for the University of Dublin, where she will take a course in Irish Life and Literature. She will return August 26.

Sister Mary Philemon, R.S.M., head of Salve's science division, is studying on a National Science Foundation Grant for College Teachers. She is at the University of Minnesota, taking Inorganic, Coordination, Compound, Synthesis and Theory (of Chemistry). The session began on June 12 and will end in the latter part of July.

Sister Mary Mercedes, R.S.M., head of the art department at Salve Regina, will leave June 26 for the University of Lisbon, where she will do research on Portuguese art and culture through the courtesy of the Portuguese government because of Sister's interest in the field. She has also received a supplementary grant from the Gulbenkian Foundation. Following visits to the major art centers of Europe, Sister will return to Newport September 8. She plans to introduce a course on Portuguese Art at Salve next year.
