SALVE REGINA FACULTY MEMBER TO LEAD TOUR ABROAD THIS SUMMER

Dr. E. William Burrell, assistant professor of English and director of secondary teacher education at Salve Regina College, Newport, will lead one of the National Council of Teachers of English studytours to the British Isles and Greece this summer. He leaves July 3, returning August 9.

The group of 30 English teachers from high schools and junior colleges throughout the United States will attend lectures at Cambridge, Oxford, and the University of London. Several of the lectures will be delivered by Dr. Burrell, past president of the Rhode Island Council of Teachers of English.

Upon his return, Dr. Burrell and the staff of Education Department at Salve Regina College will host a Newport tour for those attending the Association for Student Teaching Summer Workshop being conducted at the University of Rhode Island. Members of this group will be in Newport Wednesday, August 16.
