SALVE REGINA COLLEGE ANNOUNCES
1967-68 FACULTY APPOINTMENTS

Sister Mary Emily, R. S. M., president of Salve Regina College, Newport, today announced new faculty appointments for 1967-68. The twelve appointees cover nine academic areas.

To further expand the training of teachers for the mentally retarded, Sister Marie Jeannine O'Brien, R. S. M., will join the Education department, where she will also act as college supervisor for student teachers in the Newport County schools. She holds an M. A. in Special Education degree from Cardinal Stritch College.

New members of the History department are Sister Mary Corleen Fogarty, R. S. M., B. A., Salve Regina College, and candidate M. A., Boston College; and Sister Mary Consilii Reynolds, R. S. M., who holds an M. A. from Boston College.

Sister Mary Damian Greene, R. S. M., M. A., St. John's University; and Mr. Richard J. McGinn, M. A., Columbia University, and candidate Ph. D., University of Arizona, are the new members of the English department.

Sister Yolande-de-l'Immaculee Plante, M. A., Montreal University, will teach French during the coming year. During the past year, Sister was professor of French at the Normal School Sherbrooke, Quebec. She has published widely in both Canada and France.
