FILM RESCHEDULED
IN SALVE SERIES

John Ford's academy award winner, The Informer, will be shown Monday, October 9, at 7:30 p. m. in Mercy Hall as second entry in Salve Regina College's International Film Festival. The film was originally scheduled for Tuesday, October 10, according to the college's Cultural Affairs Calendar. The public is invited.

Starring Victor McLaglen as a powerful Irish oaf whose treachery causes the death of his friend, a compatriot in the Irish revolutionary forces, this film marked Ford as a master director for his superb marriage of sound and pictorial image in an era of over-talky staged Hollywood movies.
