IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A Portuguese Evening will be celebrated at Salve Regina College on Monday, December 4 at 7:30 p. m. in Ochre Court. Principal speaker of the evening will be Mr. Manuel Oliveria, Executive Secretary of the Portuguese American Cultural Society of New York who will speak on "Portugal: Past and Present."

A program of musical entertainment will feature the choir of Jesus Savior Church of Newport in Portuguese selections. Miss Cheryl Girr, member of the Sophomore Class of Salve Regina, will perform a typical Portuguese dance, and a group of students from the University of Coimbra will present guitar selections and sing "fados." A social hour will follow.

The evening is sponsored by the Art of Portugal class of Salve Regina College which is under the direction of Sister Mary Mercedes, R. S. M. Sister returned to Newport this fall after a summer in Portugal sponsored by the Gulbenkian Foundation.

The Portuguese Evening at Salve is open to all who are especially interested in that nation's art and culture. While there is no admission fee, donations will be accepted for relief of Lisbon's recent flood victims.
