SALVE STUDENTS

About sixty Salve Regina students heard

Sen. J. Joseph Garrahy speak on the role of the party chairman in political systems on Wednesday, Dec. 13. The state's Democratic chairman spent the day at the Newport campus, toured the grounds with college president, Sr. M. Emily, R.S.M., and lunched with administration officials, faculty, and students.

A lively informal seminar occupied afternoon session. Senator Garrahy spoke briefly to a group of faculty and students and then answered questions on both state and national issues.
