Rashomon, directed by Japan's Akira

Kurosawa, will be shown Thursday, February 29 at 7:30 p.m. in the new O'Hare Academic center as part of Salve Regina College's International Film Festival.

Consistently recognized as among the greatest films of all time, winner of the Grand Prize in the Venice Film Festival and of the Academy Award for the best foreign film in 1952, Rashomon probes the quick-silver nature of truth and subjective reality.

O'Hare Academic Center is located on Ochre Point Avenue between Leroy and Shepard Avenues. A one dollar donation is asked.
