FOR RELEASE

PRESS/RADIO RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE UNTIL MARCH 10, 1968

The Bach Festival Chamber Orchestra and Singers, Louis Pichierri, conductor, will present a concert under the sponsorship of Salve Regina College Fine Arts 68 with the assistance of a grant from the Governor's Council on the Arts, Sunday, March 10 at 7:30 p. m. in Ochre Court on the Newport campus.

Soloists will be Betty Adae, flutist, and Dorothy McKenzie, soprano. The program will include works by Vivaldi, Haydn, Mozart and contemporary Alan Hovanes.

Bach Festival performers are drawn from the Rhode Island Civic Chorale and Orchestra also founded by Dr. Pichierri. Now in its eleventh season, the parent group has enjoyed continuous success in enriching the musical life of the state and is hailed as an artistically vital community organization which cherishes the traditions of the classic repertoire, fosters contemporary music and heralds the choral works of tomorrow.

Admission is one dollar. Tickets may be procured at the door or by telephoning 847-6650, ext. 45.
