FOR RELEASE

IMMEDIATELY

A senior and a junior from Salve Regina College will participate in Senator Pell's internship program during the week of March 17. They are Marian A. Mathison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Mathison of 144 Coggeshall Avenue, Newport, and Paulette Mattera, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Mattera of 75 Pender Avenue, Warwick.

The internship program, now in its seventh year, is designed to strengthen the education received in the classroom and offers an opportunity for state residents enrolled in Rhode Island colleges, to serve for one week in the Washington, D.C., office of Senator Pell. There they observe and participate in the various phases of Senate Office operation.

Both students are history majors at Salve Regina College. Robert J. McKenna, professor of political science at the college, is chairman of the statewide internship committee.
