SALVE REGINA PLAYERS WILL PRESENT
"THE HOUSE OF BERNARDA ALBA"

Lorca's "The House of Bernarda Alba" will be presented
Saturday, May 4 at 8 p.m. in Rogers High School auditorium, by the Regina Players of Salve Regina College.

Subtitled "a drama of women in the towns of Spain," the drama portrays not only the stagnancy of life in the small Spanish villages but also the character of all of Spain at the turn of the century - a Spain isolated from the rest of the world not only by natural boundaries but also by the determination of the state to maintain the status quo at all costs.

Suzanne Marcotte, '71, of Woonsocket plays the title role of the domineering mother of five daughters. The daughters, who express their repression by emotions ranging from passivity to outright rebellion, are played by Barbara Carrillo, '71 of British Honduras; Chris Quinton, '70 of East Greenwich; Megan Daly, '69, of Wallingford, Conn.; Nancy Gillis, '70, of Saugus, Mass.; and Mary Ann Tierney, '71, of Milford, Conn.

Other major roles are taken by Linda Robinson as Maria Josefa, the demented mother of Bernarda; Mary McGann as the bitter servant, La Poncia; Jane Krywinski, a neighbor, and Kathleen Weaver Dunn, the gossiping maid.
