JOSE GRECO SLATED FOR SALVE PROGRAM

Jose Greco, world-renowned Spanish dancer, will present a lecture-demonstration on the Spanish performing arts, Tuesday, March 25 at 8:00 P.M. in Rogers High School auditorium, Newport, R. I., under the auspices of Salve Regina College Fine Arts 69. In his discussion and demonstration of the flamenco and other native dances, Mr. Greco will be accompanied by his prima ballerina, lead guitarist and other members of his famed troupe.

Born in the Abruzzi mountains of Italy and trained by Spain's foremost dance teachers, Greco made international headlines as partner to the immortal Argentinita, and subsequently, to her sister, Pilar Lopez. Following these associations, Greco organized his own company whose success was instantaneous. Since that time, Greco and his troupe have made annual concert tours both in America and abroad.

Among his film and television credits are: "Around the World in Eighty Days", and the Ed Sullivan, Perry Como, Dean Martin and Bob Hope shows.

Tickets, priced at $3.00 and $2.00 are available at Perrotti's Drug Store, Bellevue Avenue, Newport; Office of Cultural Affairs, Salve Regina College; and at the box office the night of the program. Telephone reservations will be taken by the college's Office of Public Relations, 847-6650, extension 45.
