The Faculty of Salve Regina College today announced the establishment of a Faculty Senate. Its purpose is to serve as a forum for faculty opinion on all matters of academic and professional interest and on all matters of concern to the Salve Regina College community. The Senate consists of fifteen members elected by the faculty as a whole and is a "deliberative, advisory, consultative, and legislative body" providing formal channels of communication from the Faculty to the Board of Trustees, Administration, and the Student Body; and from the Board of Trustees, Administration, and Student Body to the Faculty.

Officers elected at an organizational meeting held Tuesday, May 20 include the following:

President: Prof. Robert McKenna

Vice-President: Sr. Maureen Dietz, R.S.M.

Recording Sec'y: Dr. Dorothy Treendle

Corresponding Sec'y: Miss Rae K. O'Neill

Treasurer: Dr. Ascanio DiPippo
