Miss Virginia N. Gonsalves, formerly of Oak Street, Newport, R. I. and a 1962 graduate of Salve Regina College has received a full Fulbright grant for advance studies in Brazil.

Miss Gonsalves attended public schools in Newport. After graduation from Salve Regina, she taught Spanish for four years in the Middletown High School. The last two years she has been studying for and recently received her Master of Arts degree at Marquette University in Wisconsin.

The grant will provide for travel, maintenance, books and tuition at the University of Bahia located in the city of Salvador, state of Bahia, Brazil. Miss Gonsalve's proposed study project is "The Black Man in the Contemporary Social Novel of Brazil". In addition, she will be studying the literature of Brazil as well as perfecting her knowledge of the language.

She is presently attending a week long pre-departure orientation program in Washington at Georgetown University. Her schedule provides for her arrival in Brazil on June 29th.

Miss Gonsalve's family presently resides at 395 Grosvenor Street, East Providence.
