HONORS CONVOCATION CELEBRATES
SALVE REGINA COLLEGE 25th YEAR

The St. Catherine Medal of the Kappa Gamma Pi, national Catholic College Women's Honor Society, will be awarded for the first time to a Salve Regina College student on Sunday, January 30, 1972.

The award, presented annually to a young woman for unusual and unselfish service to her academic community, will be a featured part of a new mid-year Honors Convocation, scheduled for 2:00 p.m. in the Twombly-Burden Room, O'Hare Academic Center, at Salve Regina, Newport, R. I.

Also a part of the Sunday afternoon program will be the announcement of those students who attained the Dean's List in the first semester of the 1971-72 academic year, the 25th anniversary of the founding of the College. Students to be listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges will also be honored.

Mrs. Thomas (Caya) Bancroft, Jr., a 1957 graduate of Salve Regina, and national vice president of Kappa Gamma Pi, will present the St. Catherine Medal. Mrs. Bancroft is a nationally recognized authority on graphology, the author of a syndicated weekly newspaper column, "Ask the Analyst" and hostess of a live radio talk show, "Emphasis: Woman," in nearby Massachusetts.
