FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Salve Regina College, Newport, Rhode Island, graduated its third class of law enforcement students Sunday, September 10, 1972 in ceremonies at the school's Ochre Point Avenue campus.

Among the total 111 graduates was Mrs. Mary Matusaitis Page, 56 Pine Tree Road, Portsmouth, R. I., a former resident of Elizabeth. Mrs. Page was awarded an associate in science degree in law enforcement, cum laude.

Sister Mary Christopher, R.S.M., president of Salve Regina College, presided at the ceremony and conferred both baccalaureate and associate degrees. She was assisted by Sister Marie Corinne Walsh, R.S.M., associate dean of Community Education.

Captain Carl A. Auel, CHC, USN, Chaplain and doctoral candidate, Boston University, addressed the graduates.

A Reception for graduates and their families followed the formal awarding of degrees, in the State Dining Room of Ochre Court, magnificent 1890's mansion, over-looking Newport's Cliff Walk.

Salve Regina's Law Enforcement Degree Program is an adult-oriented program, closely allied with Rhode Island's law enforcement needs and objectives. Classes are scheduled at the main campus in Newport as well as at nine satellite campus locations throughout the State. Fall Semester began September 13.
