FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fathers' Council Spring Gala
Saturday at Salve Regina

The Salve Regina Fathers' Council will hold its Second Annual Spring Gala, Saturday, May 5 at "Wakehurst," the magnificent Tudor mansion, the former Van-Alen Bruguiere estate, in the heart of the Newport, R. I. campus.

Adding to the Tudor flavor of the evening will be a repeat performance of "Royal Gambit," under the direction of Miss Joan David. The three-act play, based on the lives of Henry VIII and his six wives was performed last month, three nights, for near capacity audiences.

A Sherry Hour at the Creative Arts Center will precede the performance, scheduled for 7:00 p.m. A Continental Champagne Buffet in Miley Hall Dining Room, (furnished by the Fathers' Council in 1968) will take place after the performance.

A Premiere showing of Salve Regina's new recruiting film, also a gift of the Fathers' Council, will highlight the Buffet.

Dancing will commence at 9:30 p.m. at "Wakehurst," concurrent with the Champagne Buffet, and will continue throughout the evening, to the music of Tony Abbot.

Paul L. Bishop, of Dedham, Mass., Fathers' Council vice-president, is chairman of the event.

Other officers of the fathers' association are: Stephen A. Fanning, Jr., of Providence, president; Robert E. Tschirch, of Swansea, Mass., secretary; and Robert K. Argentieri, of Riverside, treasurer.
