FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dr. Heriberto F. Vazquez, professor of Spanish at Salve Regina College, Newport, R. I., has been named an Outstanding Educator of America, according to information released by the College today (5/8/73).

He joins three previously named Salve Regina educators, Sister Mary Donald Egan, R.S.M., professor of English; Reverend Christopher Johnson, O.P., assistant professor of Sociology; and Dr. George V. Morris, professor of Physics and Chemistry.

Outstanding Educators of America is an annual awards program honoring distinguished men and women for their exceptional service, achievements, and leadership in the field of education.

Each year, those chosen Outstanding Educators are featured in the national awards volume--OUTSTANDING EDUCATORS OF AMERICA.

Nominations for the program are made by the officials of college and universities including presidents, deans and department heads. Their selection guidelines include an educator's talents in the classroom, contributions to research, administrative abilities, civic service and professional recognition.
