Sister Lucille McKillop, president of Salve Regina College has announced the formation of a new Christian Life Center at the college. The center intends to be an acute force fashioned to stimulate, encourage and actively participate in an authentic actualization of creative religious and human experiences. Furthermore, it intends to be a dynamic undertaking designed to serve the college and greater community by actively fostering Christian living and commitment, liturgical experience, Christian social action, ecumenical groupings, contacts with other religious and secular humanists.

The members of the Christian Life Center Committee are: Dr. Frank Maguire, Chairman, Father Christopher Johnson, Rabbi Jerome Gurland, Sister Mary Eloise Tobin, Sister Mary Jean Tobin, Sister Jeannette Pivin, Sister Marianne Postiglione, Mr. David Carlin, and Alice McLaughlin and Patricia Deam (students). The consultants to the committee are: Sister Ann Nelson, Sister Mary Consilii Reynolds and Mr. Robert McKenna.

The Christian Life Center will begin a year's program of events to actualize its objectives with a liturgical happening. This liturgical happening will consist in the baptism within the context of the Mass of Dr. and Mrs. Maguire's new son, Brian James. The event will take place on Sunday, September 30, 1973 at 11:00 A.M. in the Great Hall of Ochre Court. Monsignor Daniel Reilly, the Vicar General of the Diocese, will officiate in the absence of Bishop Louis Gelineau. The Christian Life Center cordially invites the public to attend.
