PRE-COLLEGE DAYS AT SALVE

Salve Regina College, Newport, Rhode Island, will sponsor a "Pre-College Days" program for New England high school students on Wednesday, October 31; Thursday, November 1; and Sunday, November 4.

"The purpose of the open house is to acquaint high school seniors with college life," says Sister Mary Audrey, director of admissions. "We've arranged for interested seniors to attend classes at Salve so they can experience college firsthand before they make their decision to enroll.

"This also gives them the chance to meet and question other Salve students and talk to our faculty about a particular area of study they may be interested in," Sister Audrey adds.

Students can attend any portion of the pre-college days program. The agenda for Wednesday and Thursday focuses on a campus tour with in-class sessions with students and faculty. Sunday's portion of the program is for parents and students to meet faculty members, admissions counselors, financial aid counselors, interim study counselors and other college personnel. There will also be a play rehearsal at the Creative Arts Center and a Glee Club concert in Ochre Court.

About 200 high school seniors from Rhode Island, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New York and New Jersey have pre-registered for the program. Interested students who have not pre-registered can drop in any time after 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday and Thursday or 1:00 p.m. Sunday afternoon.
