Four courses will be offered in the first semester Adult Education Program for men and women at Salve Regina College.

The course in "Rhode Island Education," will meet on Mondays at 4 p.m., beginning September 30.

"Art in Childhood Education" will be taught on Tuesdays at 4 p.m., beginning October 1, by Sister Mary Mercedes, R.S.M. This course is designed to provide studio experiences with media basic to the art experiences of children. Discussion of such problems of art teaching as growth and development, needs of exceptional children, program planning, evaluation, and art resources will be included.

"Teaching Reading Through Phonics," which proved so popular during the past Summer Session, will be repeated. Taught by Mrs. Evelyn Curley, it will be offered on Wednesdays at 4 p.m., beginning October 2.

Sister Mary Mercedes will also teach "Northern Renaissance Painting," on Thursdays at 4 p.m., beginning October 3. This will cover painting in the north of Europe in the 15th and 16th centuries with particular attention to Flanders and Holland. Primary emphasis on the works of key personalities such as The Van Eychs, Roger Van Der Weyden and others will be a feature of this course.
