SALVE*REGINAOCHRE POINT AVENUE
NEWPORT, RHODE ISLANDCOLLEGE*FOR RELEASEENGLISH SISTERS OF MERCY TO LECTURE AT SALVE REGINA

September 29, 1963

Two Sisters of Mercy from Endsleigh Convent of Mercy, Hull, Yorkshire, England, on a lecture tour of America to observe teacher training programs, are currently visiting Salve Regina College.

Sister Mary Madeleine, Head of Hull College, will lecture Monday afternoon, September 30, to members of the student body and faculty on "English Religious Poetry."

At 7 p.m. Monday, Sister Mary Everilda will talk on "The English School System and the Training of Teachers in England." This lecture, in the Great Hall of Ochre Court, is open to the public without charge.

The Sisters, part of the Middlesbrough diocesan Community of the Sisters of Mercy, whose Mother House is in Hull, staff Hull College for the training of teachers and 16 grammar schools in their district.

Sister Mary Madeleine holds a Ministry of Education Certificate in Education, the Trainers' Diploma of the National Froebel Foundation and an Oxford Honours Degree in English Language and Literature. She has more than 30 years of experience in training college work.

Sister Mary Everilda also has a Certificate in Education from the Ministry of Education, the Froebel Trainers' Diploma, and the Diploma in Education of Sub-normal Children of the Birmingham University Institute of Education. Sister, a gifted musician and craftswoman, has 28 years of training college experience.
