The Consul General of France, M. Jean Savelli, will be a guest of Salve Regina College on Wednesday, December 11. In the afternoon at four he will address, in French, the members of the College's Alliance Francaise on the subject "France Today." Following this there will be a Tea, Reception and the traditional Buche de Noel, or Yule Log, in the State Dining Room.

Miss Theresa Hanlon '65, of Fall River, is in charge of arrangements.

The public is invited to hear M. Savelli speak on the same subject, in English, in the Great Hall of Ochre Court at 8:00 p.m. that evening.

M. and Mme. Savelli, who reside in Boston, will be entertained at dinner by Dr. and Mrs. Jose M. Ramos at their home in Newport. Mrs. Ramos is Professor of Romance Languages at Salve Regina College and is faculty moderator of the Alliance Francaise.
