BY OVER 175 SALVE REGINA STUDENTS

Thirty-five Newport children will be the guests of the Regina Maris Sodality at Salve Regina College, Newport at a Christmas Party in Mercy Hall on Thursday, December 12 at 3:30 p.m. The day also commemorates the life work of Mother Catherine McAuley, foundress of the Sisters of Mercy.

The program includes a play "Christmas on the Village Square" by Henri Gheon, which will be produced by freshmen members of the Dramatic Club, The Regina Players, under the direction of Miss Joan David.

Later, Santa Claus will visit with each child as he opens gifts of toys and clothing from those five Salve Regina College students who elected to be his "fairy-godmothers" for the afternoon. Shopping from age, size and first name information, over 175 Salve students have been involved in this project for weeks, in many cases spending full allowances for good clothing and the like.

Ice cream, chocolate milk and candy will complete this student project, one of the most popular of the school year.
