SALVE REGINA COLLEGE BECOMES MEMBER OF
AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN

FRIDAY
DECEMBER 20, 1963

Sister Mary Hilda, R.S.M., Salve Regina College President, today announced that Salve Regina has become a corporate member of The American Association of University Women. Alumnae of Salve Regina College who graduated prior to AAUW listing are now eligible for membership in the Association, as will be all future graduates.

Henceforth, Salve Regina alumnae, wherever they may be located here or abroad, will be able to affiliate themselves locally with graduates of similarly recognized colleges.

An institution must have a high academic rating, provide a basic foundation of liberal education, give significant recognition to women in all aspects of the life of the institution, and maintain academic freedom in its administrative and teaching bodies to qualify for membership.

As a corporate member, the College will also be eligible to send a voting delegate to AAUW conventions to participate in the formulation of Association policy.

Sister Mary Rosalia, R.S.M., Dean, will act as AAUW liaison representative at Salve Regina College.
