Conferring of academic hoods on Salve

Regina's 1966 graduates will feature Class Day exercises at the College today, starting at 2:00 p. m.

The exercises will start with the processional led by Miss Susan J. Allard of Warwick, R. I., student body president. The graduates and honored guests will assemble on the Terrace of Ochre Court, where the invocation will be given by Reverend John P. Reilly, the College's Chaplain. The National Anthem will be sung by Miss Mary Corey, West Newton, Mass. The Class Day Address will be delivered by Miss Kathleen Dillon of Providence, R. I.

Miss Kathleen Dillon; Miss Gertrude Ste. Marie, Fall River; Miss Patricia A. Kolarsick, Shrewsbury, N. J.; and Mrs. Noreen Golden Mattis, Cranston, R. I., will be inducted into Kappa Gamma Pi. This is a national scholastic activity honor society of Catholic Women's Colleges, membership in which is granted annually to young women graduates recommended by the college for high level achievement in scholarship, character, service, and leadership.

New members, previously announced, of Sigma Phi Sigma, National Mercy Honor Society, will also be formally recognized at this time.
