DIS TINGUISHED VISITING LECTURERS
TO PARTICIPATE IN SALVE REGINA
COLLEGE WORKSHOPS

The Workshop

in Special Education, to train teachers for the mentally retarded will open Monday, June 28 at 9:00 a.m. All classes will be held in the Underwood School, Harrison Avenue, Newport. This will be the second year that this workshop has been offered in cooperation with Newport School Department.

There will be actual demonstration lessons and practice teaching with exceptional children. A distinguished lecturer will be presented each week.

One of these will be Sister Mary George, O. S. F., Founder and Administrator of St. Coletta's School, Hanover, Massachusetts. She is a pioneer in this work in America, and will be accompanied by one or more specialists from St. Coletta's.
