SALVE REGINA COLLEGE ART SEMINAR SPONSORS EXHIBIT

Members of the Seminar in Creative Art at Salve Regina College will display their paintings, ceramics, and other projects made in the art class on Thursday, July 29.

The exhibit will be held in Ochre Court from 2 until 8 p.m. The seminar members will be on hand to explain processes and guide guests who come to view the exhibit. The public is welcome. Refreshments will be served.

The spacious campus of Salve Regina College has provided an ideal setting for the Creative Art Seminar which concludes Friday. During its four weeks, the seminar has provided opportunities to its members--coming from Ottawa, Canada, Michigan, the District of Columbia, the New England states and Aquidneck Island-- for association with those interested in art--either as an enrichment or for advancement in the field of creative art teaching in the schools.
