SALVE REGINA COLLEGE
Newport, Rhode Island

April 3, 1974

NEWS RELEASE:

On Wednesday, April 3, 1974, Salve Regina will be host to the Play-Offs of the Rhode Island Mathematics League. Students participating in the Play-Offs are from eleven high schools in Rhode Island whose teams have attained the highest cumulative scores in the four meets held during the year.

An award program will follow the Play-Offs and trophies and plaques will be presented to students and teams who have attained the highest cumulative scores during the year and to the champions and runner-up of the Play-Offs.

The Rhode Island Mathematics Teachers' Association are co-sponsors of this League and will award a prize to the student with the highest over-all average. This award is given in memory of Albert A. Bennett, a mathematician of great renown, not only in Rhode Island but also, throughout New England.
