SALVE NAMES UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

VICE PRESIDENT TO BOARD

Salve Regina College, Newport, R. I., has named Charles D. O'Connell, Jr., vice president of the University of Chicago and dean of university students, to the Board of Trustees. He is the seventh person added to the Board in recent months.

Prior to becoming vice president of the University of Chicago in 1973, and dean in 1967, O'Connell served nine years as director of admissions and aid. He has also served on the faculty of Roosevelt University, Chicago; and Creighton University, Omaha, Nebraska.

Mr. O'Connell received his B.A. degree from the University of Toronto, Canada, and his M.A. degree from the University of Chicago. He has served on the board of directors of the National Scholarship Service and the Fund for Negro Students. He was vice president of the Association of College Admissions Counselors from 1960 to 1962. In addition, he served eight years as a trustee of the College Entrance Examination Board and he was chairman of the CEEB from 1968 to 1970.

Salve Regina College occupies 55 acres along the Atlantic Ocean in Newport, R. I. It is a college of arts and sciences for
