BICENTENNIAL YOUTH DEBATES AT SALVE

Students from colleges throughout Rhode Island are expected to compete in the national Bicentennial Youth Debates at Salve Regina College this Sunday, December 7th. Sponsored by the National Speech-Communication Association, the Bicentennial Youth Debates encompass three types of public speaking -- "Lincoln-Douglas" style debates, and persuasive and extemporaneous speaking.

Salve Regina College speech instructor, Robert J. Kulo, is district coordinator of the event, which runs from 9:00a. m. to 6:00p. m. in O'Hare Academic Center. First and second place winners will advance through sectional and regional levels to a final national conference.
