Francis Millet Rogers, professor of Romance Languages and Literatures at Harvard University, will offer a lecture on Portuguese contributions to the foundation of America at Salve Regina College on April 6.

Dr. Rogers, noted author, historian, and lecturer, will consider, in the lecture, Portuguese exploration of North America, settlement in England's American colonies, participation in the Revolution, and the Sephardic Jews, specifically Aaron Lopez of Newport.

The lecture is sponsored by the Portuguese Cultural Center at the Newport College.

The program will begin at 6:30 PM. It is open to the public, and there is no admission charge.
