Eight area residents were elected officers of the Newport County Chapter of the Salve Regina College Alumni Association, Wednesday evening, September 10, at the College's O'Hare Academic Center.

Eileen McCusker McDermott of Portsmouth was elected Chapter President and Barbara LeBlanc of Middletown, Vice President. Newporter Ellen Phelan will serve as Secretary and Susan Toppa of Portsmouth as Treasurer. Elected Co-Chairmen of the Hospitality Committee were Eugene Lytton and Elaine Mayer, both of Middletown. Mary Ann Houlihan, Newport, will act as Co-Chairman of the Chapter's Program Committee, assisted by Marilyn McDonald, also of Newport, who will act as Telephone Committee Chairman as well.

Salve Regina Alumni Association President, Ruth Toolan, told the approximately 25 Chapter members who attended the coffee and dessert meeting that the future of the Newport Chapter looks very promising since its re-organization last May as a result of capable leadership and renewed alumni interest. The Newport County Chapter includes Salve Regina alumni from Newport, Middletown, Portsmouth, Jamestown, Tiverton, and Little Compton.

The Chapter will hold its next meeting on Sunday, October 19th when all area alumni are invited to Mass and a brunch at the College. Beginning in November, Chapter meetings will be held the second Wednesday of each month.
