SALVE APPOINTS SECURITY DIRECTOR

Portsmouth resident, Burl W. Carlile, was appointed Director of Security at Salve Regina College on November 3. Mr. Carlile, who retired from his post as Assistant to the Director of Security at the Naval Education and Training Center in Newport, September 30, will supervise a staff of seven security officers at the College.

Mr. Carlile also served as Chief of Shore Patrol, weapons instructor, and as Command Career Counselor during his twenty years with the Navy.

He and his wife live at 96 Clearview Avenue. They have three children.
