SALVE STUDENTS INTERN IN WASHINGTON

Two Salve Regina College students, Deborah Manuel and Karen Wygant, are spending the week in Washington in the office of Rhode Island Senator Claiborne Pell under Senator Pell's Internship Program. During the five-day internship the girls will visit the White House, the Supreme Court, and the Congress, attend committee hearings and assist Senator Pell on various projects.

The girls were selected for the program on the basis of their academic records and interest in political affairs. According to Salve Regina History Professor and Internship Coordinator, Dr. Robert J. McKenna, the internship program is sponsored jointly by Senator Pell and Rhode Island Representative Edward Beard.

Both girls are Newport residents and are juniors majoring in History and Education. Deborah is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Manuel, 18 Thurston Avenue. Karen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Wygant, 18 Young Street.
