"BUCHE de NOEL" AT SALVE

The Salve Regina College French Club will hold its annual "Buche de Noel" Christmas party on Wednesday evening, December 3rd, in Ochre Court on the college campus. Highlighting the evening will be Christmas songs and foods prepared by French Club members and their guests from Salve's German and Spanish Clubs, and a special debut by Salve's own "Madame Pompadour," French Club member Dawn Nunes, who will appear in a costume designed and sewn by six other members of French Instructor Elaine Mayer's class studying famous French women. Modeled after an 18th century gown worn by patroness of the arts, Madame Pompadour, the satin and lace dress was made by Leila Berratto, Francie Christenson, Simone Cahill, Helia daCosta, Dianne Silvia and Alina Sargent.

The Newport Chapter of the nationwide organization, Alliance Franciase, will co-sponsor the "Buche de Noel."
