Sister Ann Nelson, Chairperson of the Department of History and Politics at Salve Regina College, has been named to the National Conference for Women which Congress called into existence during the observance of the 1975 International Women's Year.

The mandate of this commission is to examine women's lives and experiences and to build an appreciation of the contributions women have made and will continue to make to the National life of our country. Sister Nelson will serve on the Coordinating Committee for the State of Rhode Island and the northeast region.

Sister Ann, a member of the Rhode Island Women for the Bicentennial will receive an award on December 12 from the Catholic Association of College Alumni, Rhode Island Chapter, for her outstanding contributions to the religious dimensions of the Bicentennial in Rhode Island
