DR. NORA CONNOLLY O'BRIEN TO SPEAK AT SALVE

Dr. Nora Connolly O'Brien, the daughter of the famed Irish Patriot, James Connolly, will speak at Salve Regina College, on Friday, February 18, 1977 at 8:00 p.m.

Dr. Nora Connolly O'Brien's topic will be "The 1916 Easter Week Rebellion." Her lecture will describe events which she witnessed. She will give a first hand account of this historic week, having been the friend and confidant of the leaders of the Easter Rebellion. Nora Connolly worked tirelessly to assist Dublin citizens and workers during the fighting.

In 1954 Nora Connolly O'Brien was invited by Premier Eamon DeValera to become a Senator in the Irish Dial. She remained
