SALVE'S PRESIDENT ELECTED TO EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF N.C.E.A.

The National Catholic Education Association held its annual meeting last month in New Orleans. At the annual business meeting, the Executive Committee of the College and University Department of the National Catholic Education Association elected Sister Lucille McKillop, President of Salve Regina, The Newport College, to a three year term on the Executive Committee.

Monsignor John F. Murphy, Executive Director College and University Department, in his letter informing Sister Lucille of her election, said: "I look forward personally to working with you as you begin your term of important leadership to Catholic Higher Education through membership on our guiding board."
