SALVE'S READERS THEATRE PRESENTS "THE HOBBIT"

Salve Regina, The Newport College, will present "The Hobbit" on Thursday, May 5, and Friday, May 6 at 8:00 p.m. in Mercy Hall's Little Theatre. The presentation which will be presented is not the theatre presentation of "The Hobbit" that several groups have done recently. All who attend Salve's production will experience a true Readers Theatre version. Mr. Robert Kulo, Instructor of English and Speech, has adapted, directed and staged this authentic Readers Theatre production of "The Hobbit". Michael Radkovich, a student, has composed the musical scores to all the songs. Thus, the Salve version will be a first in many respects.

"The Hobbit" is the prelude to a trilogy by J.R. Tolkien. Hobbits are little people, smaller than dwarves. They inhabit a land they call the Shire, a place between the River Brandy-wine and the Far Downs. "The Hobbit" is a story of these delightful creatures, a story complete in itself yet full of portent. Tickets $.50 student with I.D. $1.00 General Audience.

Mercy Hall is located at the corner of Leroy and Lawrence Avenues, Newport.
